

Greater Capital Region Winter Farmers' Markets Guide

Winter doesn't mean the end of farmers markets in the Greater Capital Region. Many markets move indoors for the season, offering farm-fresh produce, meats, dairy, baked goods, specialty foods, and artisan products. Use this guide to explore winter market locations, hours, and links so you can continue supporting local farms and producers all season long.

Empire State Plaza Farmers' Market

Location: South Concourse, Albany, NY

When: Every Wednesday, 10 AM–2 PM

Details: A midweek indoor market convenient for downtown workers and visitors, featuring local foods and specialty vendors.

Website: <https://empirestateplaza.ny.gov/empire-state-plaza-farmers-market>

Hudson Farmers' Market

Location: Elks Lodge, 201 Harry Howard Ave., Hudson, NY

When: Every Saturday, 10 AM–1 PM

Details: A vibrant winter marketplace featuring produce, meats, baked goods, and unique handcrafted items.

Website: <https://www.hudsonfarmersmarketny.org/>

Saratoga Farmers' Market

Location: Wilton Mall, 3065 NY-50, Saratoga Springs, NY

When: Every Saturday, 9:30 AM–1:30 PM

Details: A large, well-loved winter market with dozens of vendors offering seasonal vegetables, farm products, prepared food, and crafts.

Website: <https://saratogafarmersmarket.org/>

Troy Waterfront Farmers' Market

Location: The Atrium, 4 3rd Street, Troy, NY

When: Every Saturday, 9 AM–2 PM

Details: A bustling indoor market with local farms, hot foods, artisans, and family-friendly atmosphere—continuing the Troy tradition all winter long.

Website: <https://www.troymarket.org/>

Schenectady Greenmarket

Location: Proctors, 432 State St., Schenectady, NY

When: Every Sunday, 10 AM–2 PM

Details: Shop fresh local products inside the beautiful Proctors theater complex. Vendors rotate throughout the season.

Website: <https://www.schenectadygreenmarket.com/>

Spa City Farmers' Market

Location: Lincoln Baths, 65 South Broadway, Saratoga Springs, NY

When: Every Sunday, 10 AM–2 PM

Details: A warm and welcoming indoor market offering produce, meats, beverages, treats, and artisan products.

Website: <http://www.spacityfarmersmarket.com/>